BACK-TO-SCHOOL

HELPING PARENTS HELP THEIR CHILDREN

Even though it's still hot outside and the calendar says there's another month of summer left, school doors will soon be opening around Comanche County. The library's Parent Collection, located in the Children's area, has a wealth of back-to-school help, such as:

- 📖 School sense : how to help your child succeed in elementary school, Parent Collection: 372.1192 CHIN
- 📖 Overcoming school anxiety : how to help your child deal with separation, tests, homework, bullies, math phobia, and other worries, Parent Collection: 649.154 PETE
- 📖 Parents' guide to IQ testing and gifted education, Parent Collection: 371.95 PALM
- 📖 Cyber-safe kids, cyber-savvy teens : helping young people learn to use the Internet safely and responsibly, Parent Collection: 025.04 WILL Visit the Parent Collection for these and other helpful resources. The collection is small enough to browse easily yet large enough to find the information you need.

Funds for building this collection were provided by Success by 6/Smart Start Oklahoma and Friends of the Lawton Public Library.
