LINCOLN: The Constitution & the Civil War

February 29-April 13, 2012

The Lawton Public Library is proud to be one of 200 libraries chosen to host this traveling exhibit. The National Constitution Center developed the exhibition in collaboration with the American Library Association. It travels around the country with funds provided by the National Endowment for Humanities grant: great ideas brought to life.

LAWTON LIBRARY TEENS # 1 AGAIN!

Lawton Public Library's 6th-12th grade readers won the October Teen Read Month Contest for the second year in a row by reading more pages than any other library in Oklahoma. These kids won $250 for books in the teen area. Thanks to all the teens who participated in the contest. Thanks also to librarian Heather

Reminder Corner

KOHA, our new library catalog system, will be installed this month. The new program will make searching for materials quicker, easier and better.
